

The Denver Ballet Guild is a non-profit, volunteer-run organization that has supported, promoted, and celebrated dance arts in Colorado since 1979. Through outreach, education, and fundraising, our 1200+ members:

Award $85K annually in grants to Metro Denver dance companies through our Community Enrichment Program. Past recipients have included: 3rd Law Dance, Ballet Ariel, Boulder Ballet, Cleo Parker Robinson Dance, Colorado Ballet, Hannah Kahn Dance Company, Kim Robards Dance, Lemon Sponge Cake Contemporary Ballet, Wonderbound, and Zikr Dance Ensemble. These grants promote a diverse arts community in Denver supporting innovation and dance development.

Sponsor Showcase of Dance and In-School Programs annually for more than 20 years, bringing elementary school children (largely from underserved schools in metro Denver) to live professional dance performances. The Denver Ballet Guild covers all costs, including bus transportation to the schools and educational materials for the children. These two programs cost $44K to produce, and reach more than 7500 children.

Host and sponsor the Young Dancers Competition, a highly-regarded and rigorous competition for young dancers age 10-18. The program provides the opportunity for more than 250 competitors from across Colorado to train with a nationally-known master teacher and compete for financial awards to support their dance education. The program costs $45K to produce, of which $28K is awarded to a group of these promising young dancers.

Host and sponsor youth dance arts appreciation programs (Les Cygnettes, Les Demoiselles, and new in 2022 to also include Les Messieurs), bringing middle and high school students from Metro Denver schools to various dance performance and professional theater events.

Host and sponsor the Guild's signature fundraising event and a long-standing Denver tradition, Le Bal de Ballet. This program honors accomplished local area high school seniors and raises between $130K & $150K annually for the Guild.
