Why Support DBG Community Programs?

The Denver Ballet Guild is a non-profit, all-volunteer organization that has supported dance arts in the Colorado community for more than 35 years. We directly impact the community through outreach programs that benefit Colorado youth.

Showcase of Dance and In-School Programs reach more than 7,500 children, exposing many to the joy of a live dance performance for the first time in their lives. These programs cost more than $32,000 annually.

Community Enrichment funds the creative efforts of eight Colorado dance companies with generous grants totaling $85,000.

Young Dancers Competition awards up to $27,500 to Colorado ballet students to further their dance education.

Raise your glass, kick up your heels and join us for Happy Trails and Cocktails on October 24!
